

SPIRIT CALLS ONLY:

HOW TO USE TAROT TO CHAT
WITH GUIDES, GHOSTS &
GALACTIC WEIRDOS

Quick + Dirty Spirit Communication Steps

(Save this. Use it. Channel weirdness responsibly.)

Set your intention. Be specific about who you want to reach. Don't spiritually butt-dial the void and hope for the best.

Set the vibe. Light a white candle, throw on some binaural beats, and breathe like you're not being chased by intrusive thoughts. Five to ten minutes of stillness is enough.

Pick your deck. Go with the one that gets you. Tarot gives structure, oracle brings sass.

Say the affirmation:

"Only beings of love, light, and higher guidance may come through."
This is your spiritual no soliciting sign.

Shuffle and pull. Use the tarot spread below.

Try automatic writing or voice channeling if you're feeling brave. Let your intuition run the show for once.

Connect the dots. Read the cards individually, then look at the whole spread like it's a plot twist waiting to happen.

Pull an oracle card or two if things feel fuzzy. Ask what's supporting the message or what you're missing.

Close the session with intention. Say thanks, snuff the candle (don't blow it out like it's your birthday), and shut it down with love and clarity.

Ground yourself. Eat something. Touch grass. Pet something fluffy. You're still a mortal coil and need to act like it.
